To add your pet to your Cathay Pacific booking, start by checking the airline's pet travel policy . Next, visit the Cathay Pacific website or contact their customer service team to notify them that you'll be traveling with a pet.  You'll need to provide details about your pet's breed, size, and weight to ensure they meet the airline's requirements.  Depending on your pet's size, you may need to book them as cargo or as part of the cabin allowance.

Cathay Pacific also offers comfortable pet carriers for in-cabin travel . Make sure your pet's carrier meets the airline's specific dimensions, ensuring they stay comfortable throughout the flight.  Additionally, there are certain vaccinations and health certificates  that might be required, especially for international travel. Be sure to check these regulations to avoid any last-minute issues.
